

Family Life to Independent Living for Individuals with Disabilities

Thursday February 15, 2018, 7:00 pm to 8:45 pm
WCSD Conference Room, 105 Casey Rd., East Amherst, NY

This free workshop, designed for high school students with disabilities and their parents, will provide insights on ways to successfully transition toward living independently.

Learn about:

- Embracing the person-centered planning process,
- Integrating and collaborating with school, support systems, and community resources,
- Implementing advocacy and self-determination strategies.

Optional WSEPTSA Open Forum: 6:30pm - 7pm

- Network with members,
- Borrow books from our lending library.

About the Presenter: David Whalen is the President of Williamsville SEPTSA. He founded his business, Disability Awareness Training, in 2004 and has presented to over 600 audiences. He chaired the Town of Amherst Committee on Disabilities, is a national ADA trainer, FEMA instructor, past Parent Network Board chair, and grant recipient from New York, Missouri, Virginia, and FDNY. Dave is also an adjunct professor at Niagara University where he teaches this course for majors in Special Education and Developmental Disabilities.

Williamsville
Special Education Parent Teacher Student Association

www.williamsvilleseptsa.org

 Follow @WSeptsa

 facebook.com/WSEPTSA