

Perfectionism & Gifted Students

Thursday, May 23, 2019, 7pm - 8:45pm

WCSD Conference Room, 105 Casey Rd, East Amherst, NY

Gain insight into perfectionism and learn common sense solutions to problems associated with it.

Discussion topics will include:

- time management
- procrastination
- social relationships

About the Presenter: Rosemary Callard-Szulgit, Ed.D. is a gifted education specialist, parent of four gifted kids, instructor at the University at Buffalo, author of seven books in the field of gifted education, and has specialized in this field for over 45 years.

She has presented in Beijing, Moscow, Toronto, and throughout the United States and at many NAGC Conferences with a focus on perfectionism and gifted kids. She works with individual counseling and gifted children, and advocates for the fair and equal education for all children, including our gifted.

Williamsville
Special Education
PTSA®
everychild.onevoice.®
www.williamsvilleseptsa.org

