

LET'S TALK ABOUT: Supporting Student Wellness & Mental Health

Thursday January 23rd, 7PM - 8:45PM

Williamsville Central School District (WCSD)
Conference Rooms, 105 Casey Rd, East Amherst, NY

Moderated Q&A based on questions submitted here: bit.ly/1-23-Panel

Panel discussion topics will include:

- wellness initiatives in WCSD
- school mental health supports & staff
- NYS mental health education legislation
- community-based initiatives & supports

Hosted by:

Panelists from:

WITH EXPERT PANELISTS:

Peg Barrett, LCSW-R is a former school social worker, current president of the NYS School Social Workers Association, and Education Advocate at Mental Health Advocates of WNY. She also participated on the advisory board for MHANYS to develop the mental health education legislation.

Rosa D'Abate, Ph.D is WCSD Coordinator of Student Services. She oversees an array of support services designed to promote wellness and positive educational experiences for all students.

Carol Doggett is Senior Director of Marketing Communication and Outreach at Mental Health Advocates of WNY. Additionally, she directs the Just Tell One (JT1) program, a peer-to-peer awareness campaign on mental health prevention and early intervention.

Jill Kasprzak is School Psychologist at Williamsville East. One of her many roles is to train student peer leaders and adult advisors for Sources of Strength suicide prevention program at all three district high schools.

www.eriemha.org